

Obituary

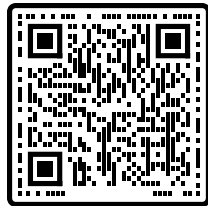

Adam "5" McAndrew Harvey, age 40, of Celina, Texas, passed away June 5, 2024. Adam was born July 26, 1983, in Dallas, Texas, to Edwin Andrew and Janet (Veerman) Harvey. Adam, known by many as "Harv" and "5" was truly larger than life and had the biggest heart for his family and friends, and anyone he would come across. To know him was to love him and to be loved by him. He became a high school football legend, never losing a game and winning four state championships, along with one state championship in baseball, and multiple MVP awards and many other accolades as well. Adam loved everything sports – the Cowboys, Mavs, Stars, and especially his beloved Texas Rangers, whom he got to see win the World Series before his passing.

He was a Renaissance man who loved fishing, hunting and music, and he treasured enjoying those hobbies with family and friends. He rarely met a stranger, and when he did, he would always intentionally find a common thread or mutual friend, immediately befriending them. Adam was the ultimate storyteller, and every experience with him usually resulted in some kind of story. His great storytelling, coupled with his hilarious sense of humor, always made for a good time, and his iconic laugh made the stories and fun that much better.

Despite facing numerous health challenges in the past six years, Adam's toughness and resilience were remarkable. Yet, beneath his strength, he was a gentle giant, a big teddy bear who loved deeply and was deeply loved in return. In recent years, Adam grew significantly in his faith and had complete confidence that he would spend eternity with Jesus in heaven. His loyalty was unmatched, evident in the many lifelong friendships he maintained. He will always be missed by all who knew him, but his stories and legacy will continue to live on.

CELEBRATING THE LIFE OF

ADAM MCANDREW HARVEY JULY 26, 1983 – JUNE 5, 2024

I have fought the good fight, I have finished the course, I have kept the faith: henceforth there is laid up for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give to me at that day; and not to me only, but also to all them that have loved his appearing. —2 Timothy 4:7–8

John 14:1–6

“Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father’s house are many mansions; if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and will receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also. And whither I go ye know, and the way ye know. Thomas saith unto him, Lord, we know not whither thou goest; and how know we the way? Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no one cometh unto the Father, but by me.”
